Kelli Bahr Named PBC Women's Soccer Defender of the Week

Posted: Oct 04, 2011

SAVANNAH, Ga. - Armstrong Atlantic State University senior defender Kelli Bahr has been named the Peach Belt Conference's women's soccer Defensive Player of the Week, announced today by league officials.

Bahr helped the Armstrong defense give up just one goal in three matches away from home on the week as the No. 22-ranked Pirates went 2-0-1 with their first two shutouts of the season. The Middleton, Wisc., native played all 90 minutes in Armstrong's 1-0 win at then-No. 23 Columbus State on Friday night, then logged all 110 minutes in the Pirates' 1-1 draw with South Region finalist Tampa on Sunday.

She also helped hold USC Aiken to just five shots in a 3-0 Peach Belt win over the Pacers on Tuesday. Armstrong collectively outshot their opponents 44-24 on the week as well.

This is the second weekly honor for Bahr in her career - she was also the league's defensive Player of the Week on Oct. 26, 2010. Bahr is the first Pirate to earn a weekly player award from the Peach Belt this season.

Bahr and the Pirates return to action on Saturday, October 8, facing UNC Pembroke in a Peach Belt Conference matchup at 3:30 p.m. at the Armstrong Soccer Field.
